The draft Activity Centres Policy is a State Planning Policy for the planning and development of activity centres throughout Perth and Peel. Its main purpose is to specify broad planning requirements for the development of new, and the redevelopment of existing, activity centres in urban areas of Perth and Peel.

Hear from three key contributors to the debate concerning the draft Activity Centres Policy and the latest on the trading hours debate.

Speakers:

Charles Johnson, Executive Director, Strategic Policy and Research, Dept of Planning

In his role at the Department of Planning, Charles oversees the preparation and review of State Planning Policies and is involved in Planning Reform. He is currently directing the finalisation of Directions 2031 and Beyond.

Wayne Spencer, Executive Director, Retail Traders Association of WA.

Wayne brings with him a comprehensive knowledge gained from an extensive and diversified business career. His experience in the retail/wholesale sector has included direct involvement with department stores FMCG's specialty stores, "category killers", as well as single product marketing and promotion.

Peter Pike, State Manager WA, Centro Properties Group

Peter started his career in the shopping centre industry as Centre Manager at Morley City in 1989 and had a very exciting time for the next few years involved in the development, leasing and management of the property which when completed became The Galleria Morley.
